Poem

“Miss Me But Let Me Go” author unknown

Now I've come to the end of the road and the sun has set me free,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long and not with a head bowed low.
Remember the life that once we shared,
Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me but let me go.

The Farewell to Baz

The Committal

The Irish Blessing

Baz

May the road rise to meet you

May the wind be always at your back

May the sun shine warm upon your face

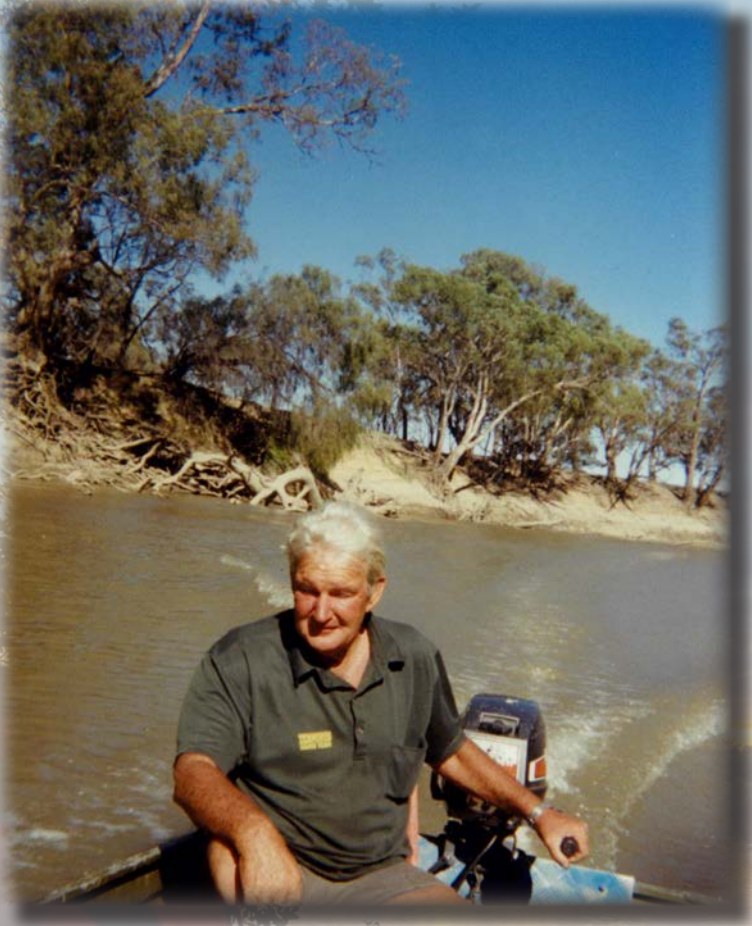

The rains fall soft upon your fields and,

Until we meet again,

We will remember you.

Closing Music

“I Can’t Stop Loving You” by Johnny O’Keefe

Des, Linda, Jodie and Barry's family would like to thank you all for your kindness and expressions of sympathy during this very sad time for their family.

Following the service, please join the family at the Uranquinty Hotel, 34 Morgan Street, Uranquinty for light refreshments and the sharing of memories you have of Barry.
